

STUDIO LEGALE SANTINI

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Studio Legale Santini is an Italian Law Firm located in Rome with a subsidiary in Milan.

We provide legal assistance in different fields and we cover the whole territory of Italy.

Santini Law Firm has developed considerable experience in the area of corporation law, trademarks, real estate, transactions and construction law.

The Attorneys of our law firm assist the clients in all phases of the operations.

Santini Law Firm has developed a practice in transactions relating, M & A, acquisitions and sales, and real estate development. We also commonly provide legal advice to Italian companies for their international operations and investments. We are able to assist our clients in highly structured transactions involving multiple jurisdictions.

We advise industrial and service businesses as well as commercial and investment banks in structuring and completing leveraged and management buy-outs, joint-ventures, strategic alliances, equity investments, spin-offs, and corporate restructuring.

As for the CORPORATION AND COMMERCIAL LAW, we represent and advise our clients on the business activities' formation and structuring in Italy and abroad, and assist foreign clients in the establishment and operation of activities in Italy.

Studio Legale Santini provides assistance in the industrial law sector, with an emphasis on patents and trademarks, unfair competition, trade secrets, and technology transfer.

Our Attorneys provide support for software licence and maintenance agreements, telecommunications systems, data protection, cross-border transfer, electronic payment systems and digital signatures. We have developed a specific competence in the Internet law and the use of new technologies and in all matters related to e-commerce.
